

Magic and Henman at CrossCurrents

There will some magic tomorrow (Friday) night at CrossCurrents Cafe.

The featured performer will be David Henman, a founding member of April Wine. He'll be performing with Rosemarie Bell, Paul Zurin (Paul Zurin Orchestra) on piano, Eddie M Cromwell on percussion, and Wolf Hassel (Frozen Ghost, Sheriff, Alias) on bass. But the evening will begin with Henman's 15-year-old grandson Magic Matt performing some magic tricks.

The doors will open at 7:30 p.m., and the entertainment is scheduled to begin at 8.

CrossCurrents Cafe is at Bolton United Church on Nancy Street. Use the side entrance.
