

Man arrested for mischief in Bolton

A 21-year-old Caledon man faces charges after a disturbance outside a Bolton establishment early in the morning of Feb. 2. Caledon OPP officers were called out shortly after 1:50 p.m. They learned that two males had entered the establishment earlier that morning and commented to an employee that they owned weapons. As a precaution, the men were asked to leave. Police report they were apparently displeased with the request and upon exiting, one of the males caused damage to a glass window. Police charged the suspect with mischief under $5,000.
