

Man arrested for robbery

A 55-year-old man from Bolton was charged with robbery after a July 31 incident in Bolton.

Caledon OPP reports they were called to investigate an assault in front of a store. Their investigation revealed one man approached another and assaulted him, making off with his glasses.

The attacker left the area in a taxi, and the victim did not require medical attention.

The man was charged as the result fo further investigation.