

Man charged at spot check

A Reduce Impaired Driving Everywhere (RIDE) spot check resulted in a 33-year-old Brampton man being charged June 17. Caledon OPP reports the spot check was set up on Forks of the Credit Road at McLaren Road. A silver Subaru was stopped, and officers found there was open liquor in the car. The car was searched and a quantity of marijuana was discovered, as well as OxyContin.

The man was charged with driving with an open container alcohol, possession of a schedule II substance (marijuana) and possession of a schedule I substance.
