

Man charged with stunt driving

A complaint from a member of the public resulted in a 26-year-old man from Guelph being charged Feb. 5. Caledon OPP reports they received a complaint about a vehicle speeding and weaving in and out of traffic in the area of Highway 10 and Highpoint Sideroad. An officer spotted a grey BMW and clocked it going 150 km-h in a posted 80 zone. The driver was charged with stunt driving and dangerous operation of a motor vehicle. Police remind motorists that anyone charged with stunt driving is subject to an immediate seven-day driver's licence suspension and an immediate seven day seizure of the vehicle. Upon conviction, the minimum fine for the first offence is $2,000 and six demerit points. A further driving suspension may also be ordered.
