

Man charged

A 49-year-old Caledon man was charged with driving with more than the legal limit of alcohol in his system after being stopped last Saturday morning.

Caledon OPP reports an officer pulled a red Kia Roi over in the area of Mayfield and Bramalea Roads at about 11:35 a.m. for a traffic violation, and determined the driver had consumed alcohol.

The man's licence was suspended for 90 days and his car was impounded for seven days.
