

Man facing charges in serious assault

A 41-year-old Caledon man is facing some serious charges after a Jan. 2 incident at a Bolton home.

Caledon OPP reports they were called out to investigate a serious assault. The man has been charged with aggravated assault and four counts of assault.

Police said they will not be releasing the name of the accused as it may identify the victim in this occurrence.