

Many crafts in Caledon East

Sydney Rayner and Denele Barron, Grade 7 students at Caledon East Public School combined to make this entire inventory of Little Miss Cupcakes for their table at the annual Christmas Craft Show at the school recently. Photos by Bill Rea

Student Sydney McLean was showing a collection of bracelets she made while Hannah Spencer from Mono had a number of headbands she created.

Santa Clause was a big hit at the Christmas Craft Show, meeting many of his friends like Christopher Goertzen, 6, and his sister Megan, 9.

Gemma Horvath of Bolton had a collection of wreaths and other decorations on display.

Lauren Hansen and her mother Carol Marko of Caledon East had this display of wreaths and other decorations from Camay Creations.
