

MUSIC STUDENTS HELP OUT ANIMALS

Students at the two Music for Young Children studios in Caledon have been contributing a nickel when ever they practised a song, and those contributions came to $259. The proceeds from the effort went buying food, toys and treats for the cats housed at Caledon Animal Shelter in Bolton. Students gathered at the shelter recently to make the presentation. Photo by Bill Rea