

Not much changes in senior men's standings

A showdown Feb. 22 between the first and second-place teams in the Caledon Senior Hockey League resulted in a 3-3 standoff between Bolton Chiropractic Centre and Yale Industrial Trucks.

In other CSHL action at Don Sheardown Memorial Arena, Jiffy Lube Oilers walloped Fines Ford Lincoln 9-1 and Heart Lake Insurance crushed Rutherford Global Logistics 7-3.

Bolton Chiropractic 3, Yale 3

Bruno Fracassi scored for Yale with 49 seconds left in the game to pull out the tie.

Dom Orazio and Ron Sampson finished with a goal and an assist each for Yale. Rich Petrie, James Heenan and Robert Masutti had one assist each.

Nick Taccogna led the Chiropractors with two goals while the chief bonebender himself, team sponsor Mike Shore, had a goal and an assist. Jim Moyer finished with two assists while Gary Moss had one.

Jiffy Lube 9, Fines Ford 1

Rick Agar powered the Jiffy Lube offence with a goal and five assists with Jeff Boyles right behind him with three goals.

Peter Coghill and Mike McNamara chipped in a goal and two assists each. Dom Spignasi had one goal and one assist, with the other goals coming from Jim Rogers and Mike Lo Dico. Bill Doherty set up two goals and Garry Hoxey had one helper.

Gary Faultless scored for Fines on assists by Peter Kuchar and James Hardman.

Heart Lake 7, Rutherford 3

It was a case of too much Marrelli for Rutherford, as the Heart Lake sharpshooter had one goal and five assists.

Also hard on the losers were Jack Gibson, who had three goals and an assist, as well as Greg Frangakas, who had two goals and one assist. Tony Dinis scored the other goal. Dave Smith had two assists with singles going to Luch Pinarello, Joe Guaragna and Ian Kerr.

Steve Tarasco scored all of Rutherford's goals, with Maurizo Giorgio adding two assists. Jim Pitre, Howard Wight and John Pitsadiotis each had one assist.