

PAMA kicks-off an exciting new year

Peel Art Gallery, Museum and Archives (PAMA) is excited to usher in a new year, connecting Region of Peel residents with arts and culture.

As people ease into the year, PAMA offers a last chance to see three dynamic portrait exhibitions, an amazing multimedia art experience and a last look at the talented artists in the Muslim community across Canada. January programming is all about warming-up for a great year ahead and getting our hearts pumping through art activities, yoga with new partners 5 Elements, and dance with Akoma Afro Dance.

Last chance to see exhibitions

Closing Jan. 21

? Meeting Her Majesty, Phil Richards' Official Portrait ? Discover sketches and related material created for the official portrait of Queen Elizabeth II for the Diamond Jubilee, commissioned by the Canadian Government in 2012. See if you can find the Queen's two hidden Corgis in the large reproduction of the final portrait.

? The Kingston Prize, Canada's Portrait Competition ? Explore the work of the 30 finalists.

? Through Gordon Rayner's Eyes, Portraits of Famous Artists ? Connect with his series of innovative and often humorous paintings. See his thick use of paint and how it makes each piece so unique.

? 150 Muslim Contributions to Canada: This community art exhibition showcases the rich heritage and growth the Muslim community has contributed to Canada in the past 150 years.

Closing Jan. 28

? Blue God and the Serpents is a multimedia art project conceived as shadow puppet theatre by Brampton based artist Sharada K. Eswar and her collaborative team members, Sonja C. Rainey and Rup Sidhu. The project pays tribute to Vishnu and our planet Earth.

Year-Round Favourites

At PAMA, Thursday evenings and weekends are always happening times and are full of ways to explore, create and connect.

? Knit@PAMA: Thursdays from 6 to 8 p.m. ? A fantastic all-ages gathering to knit wonderful, warm products which are donated to local Peel charities. Admission to this activity is free.

? Tours: Thursday nights, Saturdays and Sundays ? Request your own personalized tour with a friendly Visitor Service Guide. The tour is included in the cost of admission. Arrange private tours for groups or organizations, but PAMA asks that those be booked in advance.pama - 4

? Family Fun Weekend Activity: Saturdays and Sundays from 1 to 4 p.m. ? Guide the family through art projects at PAMA and inspire creativity. January's theme is about diversity and keeping an open-heart this New Year. Create a fuzzy felt coaster based on images of human cells for inspiration.

? Art of Yoga with 5 Elements Studio (16 years of age and older): First Thursday of the month (Feb. 1, March 1, and April 5) from 7 to 8:30 p.m. This year, PAMA is excited to team-up with a local yoga studio, 5 Elements. This activity is included in the cost of admission.
