

Pumpkinfest still going strong at Downey's

There's been a lot of activity lately at Downey's Farm Market on Heart Lake Road. The 2013 Pumpkinfest has been attracting crowds. This 'Bare Bones Band' was attracting a lot of attention from people walking the grounds.

Rock 'N' Ray Michaels was broadcasting live Sept. 28.

There were lots of fun things to do. Christina Fernandes from Toronto was helping to guide her daughter Avelina around the track.

Magician Steve Baker was performing his Doc Century's Travelling Medicine Show Thanksgiving weekend, and he's expected back this coming weekend. Photos by Bill Rea