

Ritchie Bros. invited community to watch World Cup final

Members of the community took Ritchie Bros. Auctioneers in Bolton up on their invitation Sunday and watched the World Cup final on the giant video wall in their auction theatre. They were treated to a thrilling match as Germany bested Argentina 1-0 in extra time. Most of them stayed for the entire game and for the awarding of draw prizes after. Grant Anastas of Bolton and his children Connor, 10, and Rachael, 6, left no doubts about who they were cheering for, especially when Mario Gotze scored the winning goal. Photos by Bill Rea

