

Russian culture coming to CrossCurrents

There will be a Russian theme in the music provided tomorrow (Friday) night at CrossCurrents Cafe in Bolton.

The performers will include Misha and Tania Ovsichtcher, who have been performing Russian music, from folk songs to tunes from the Soviet era, for years. Singer and guitarist Yuriy Dolzhykov will also be appearing.

CrossCurrents Cafe is at Bolton United Church on Nancy Street (use the side entrance). Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the music is scheduled to start at 8.

Admission is free, but donations are welcome.
