

Salon video study at Claude Church

Claude Church, on Highway 10, south of Olde Base Line Road, will be hosting a series of six video lectures and round-table discussions over consecutive Saturday mornings.

The speaker in the lectures will be N.T. Wright, and the themes will be bringing hope to the present world; practical and political theology; what lies ahead and the Kingdom of God breaking into present day realities.

The series will start this Saturday (Oct. 15) and will run until Nov. 19, from 10 a.m. to noon.

There will be a handbook, costing $14 per person, available on arrival.

To register, contact Faith Clarkson at 905-460-6840.

Claude Church is at 15175 Hurontario St.
