There was a good crowd out recently for the annual Scottish afternoon festivities at St. Andrew's Stone Church. The Sandhill Pipe Band were turned out to add to the atmosphere of the occasion. Photos by Bill Rea

The festivities included the auctioning of this painting of the church. Mayor Allan Thompson is seen here with the artist, Joe Thompson.

Members of the Leahy family, including Chanda, Xavier, Aliyah and Frank were providing Scottish music for the event.

The performers included Liz Ward and her father-in-law Dave from Fergus.
