

Sounds of the '20s, '30s and '40s at CrossCurrents

The Roaring 20s promise to be the main source of music tomorrow (Friday) night at CrossCurrents Cafe in Bolton.

As well, there should be some selections from 'the decadent 30s and swinging 40s.'

The performers will be Ragwax, with Chris Woolley on guitar and vocals, Carson Freeman on saxophone, John Farrell on lead guitar and Abbey Sholzberg of base.

CrossCurrents Cafe operates out of Bolton United Church at the corner of King and Nancy Streets (use side entrance).

The doors will open at 7:30 p.m. with the music scheduled to start at 8.

Admissions is free, but donations are welcome.
