

SouthFields Village group holding meeting

SouthFields Village Residents' Group will be holding their next quarterly meeting March 12.

It will be at 7pm, at the SouthFields Village Public School.

The tentative agenda will include local development and area updates, details on a sustainable transportation pilot project, an update on the Monarch Plastics proposal, information on the community clean-up day, etc.