

Toby Jug Athletes of the Week ? Nov. 24, 2016

Mayfield Secondary School
Emma Everett
The 14-year-old is a successful cross-country runner, having won in her age group at ROPSSAA and coming in 11th at OFSAA. She's planning to be part of the nordic skiing team when winter comes, and track and field in the spring, probably specializing in the 1,500 and 3,000-metre steeplechase. In the community, she coaches younger folks at 310 Running. The Grade 9 student lives in Inglewood.

Robert F. Hall Catholic Secondary School
Aidan Kirkham
This Grade 12 student played safety on the varsity football team, which just missed the playoffs for the first time in 10 years (he said they lost the crucial game that they could have won). He's thinking of trying out for the badminton team, as well as going out for track and field, concentrating on the high and long jumps. The 17-year-old lives in Mansfield.

St. Michael Catholic Secondary School Sara Nicole Del Core This 17-year-old is a centre who has played on the school's varsity basketball team for three years. The team won their first eight games of the season. She planning to go out for ultimate Frisbee in the spring. In the community, she used to play rep basketball in the Caledon Cougars' organization, but she gave it up to focus more on school. The Grade 12 student lives in Bolton.

Humberview Secondary School Olivia Cadieux The Grade 10 student is an accomplished cross-country runner, who finished seventh in the Heart Lake Invitational and second at ROPSSAA. She also competed at OFSAA. She plans to go out for nordic skiing, and track and field, specializing in the 3,000 and 1,500 metre events. In the community, the 14-year-old is a member of 310 Running. She lives in Bolton.
