

Starts April 11 ? Creative Writing Workshop Series starting at library

Have you ever felt like you wanted to write, but just didn't know how to get started? Have you started stories or poems that are highly creative, but you just don't know how to finish them? Have you ever wanted to take stories from your life or your family's and turn them into entertaining light-hearted tales? Words are all around us. We just have to learn how to make them work for us. Learn how to craft your words into authentic creative pieces with a beginning, middle and end. Learn how to harness the spark that burns within you and make it dance to your own special song. We all have the ability to imagine and dream. Put those dreams on paper with Dr. Win Mellor-Hay, writing and literature scholar. The Creative Writing Workshop, designed for adults, is a four-part weekly series from April 11 until May 2. All workshops will take place at the Albion-Bolton branch of Caledon Public Library. The cost is $99 per registrant. For more information, go to caledon.library.on.ca or call a local library branch.
