

STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT ACCIDENT AWARENESS

Retired police officer Robert Annan of Accident Awareness brought this prop with him recently when he addressed students at St. Michael Catholic Secondary School in Bolton. A specialist in accident reconstruction, he was talking to students about fatal accidents and the hazards that are faced on the road. The presentation was sponsored by the Insurance Bureau of Canada. Photo by Bill Rea