

STUDENTS SUPPORT TIM HORTON FOUNDATION

Kindergarten students at Caledon East Public School came up with a unique way to raise money for the Tim Horton Children Foundation. They spent two 40-minute periods recently running a mini-Tim Horton outlet, making the Timbits themselves. The result was $320 was raised for the cause. Brad and Liz Stafford of the Bolton outlets were on hand last week to accept the cheque. Photo by Bill Rea