

Stunt driving charge laid

Caledon OPP have charged a 40-year-old resident of Etobicoke with racing a motor vehicle after an incident March 18 on Highway 410.

Police report an officer conducting speed enforcement at about 10:45 a.m. spotted a Mitsubishi in the area of Kennedy Road travelling at high speed. The officer determined the car was travelling at 140 km-h in a posted 80 zone.

The vehicle was impounded for seven days as a result of the stunt driving charge.
