

Subway Athletes of the Week ? January 16, 2014

Mayfield Secondary School
Emily Newton
This 14-year-old has recently been contributing her skills to the school's Nordic team. In a meet late in December, she placed 10th out of 31. In the fall, she was a rusher and sometimes played quarterback for the flag football team, and might go out for track in the spring, specializing in 100 and 200 metres. Away from school, she's active in Sondra Tri Dance in Bolton. The Grade 9 student lives in Palgrave. Her parents are Annette and Tom Newton.

Robert F. Hall Catholic Secondary School
Aidan Kirkham
This Grade 9 student is a small forward on the junior boys' basketball team. In the fall, he was a defensive halfback for the school's championship football team. He might go out for lacrosse in the spring. Away from school, he plays basketball in the Orangeville Hawks organization, and he's thinking about playing football for the Orangeville Outlaws. The 14-year-old lives in Mansfield with his parents Mercedes and Michael Kirkham.

St. Michael Catholic Secondary School Victoria Rilstone This 16-year-old plays lead for the school's senior mixed curling team. She's also a swimmer, specializing in the 100-metre backstroke. Away from school, she used to dance with Sondra Tri Dance in Bolton. The Grade 11 student lives in Bolton. Her parents are Paul Rilstone and Josee-Anne Roy.

Humberview Secondary School Nicole French This Grade 9 student has been showing her prowess as a wrestler, winning silver at two tournaments before the holiday break. In the community, she's a left winger in the Caledon Coyotes organization. The 14-year-old lives in Caledon with her parents Tom and Heather French.