

Things tighten a bit in senior hockey standings

It was an evening for upsets Dec. 7 in the Caledon Senior Hockey League.

Jiffy Lube Oilers drove Fines Ford Lincoln into the ice, blasting them 7-3 at Don Sheardown Memorial Arena.

In other action, Yale Industrial Trucks whipped Bolton Chiropractic Centre 9-3 to narrow their lead in the standings, and Heart Lake Insurance edged Rutherford Global Logistics 5-4.

Jiffy Lube 7, Fines Ford 3

Jeff Boyles, Rick Agar and team rep Garry Hoxey powered the Jiffy Lube offence.

Boyles scored twice while Agar and Hoxey both had one goal and two assists. Carlo Fantin, Larry Pevato and team sponsor Brian Fetterly scored the other goals. Peter Coghill and Steve Sanderson had one assist each.

Team rep Jim Dunbar, John Pallotta and Greg Collins scored for Fines. Mike Foley and John Castellucci had one assist apiece.

Yale 9, Bolton Chiropractic 3

Dominic Ierullo and James Heenan were the sparkplugs for Yale with two goals and one assist each.

Bruno Fracassi had one goal and two assists. Cashing in for one and one were Stefan Pacula, Dom Orazio, Ron Sampson and team sponsor Al McFadyen. Garth Young and Bill Davis had one assist each.

Gary Moss led the Chiropractors with a goal and an assist. George Armstrong and sponsor Mike Shore scored the other goals. Single assists went to Nick Taccogna and Jim Horan.

Heart Lake 5, Rutherford 4

Greg Frangakas scored with 1:48 left in the third period to choke off a Rutherford comeback from a 4-1 deficit to give Heart Lake the win.

He also added an assist. Victor Marrelli scored two goals while Tony Dinis and team rep Ian Kerr had one each. Jack Gibson notched two assists with singles going to team sponsor Chris Spilar, Joe Guaragna and Frank Cirone.

Maurizo Giorgio led Rutherford with two goals while Rick Geiger and Steve Tarasco also scored. Joe Palumbo had one assist.