

Town holds programs to mark Family Day

Town holds programs to mark Family Day Town of Caledon facilities were busy places Monday as families were out celebrating Family Day. The climbing walls at Caledon Centre for Recreation and Wellness (CCRW) were attracting lots of attention Monday. CCRW staff member Daniel Zambon was lending a hand as Ilsa Mazurkiewicz, 4, of Bolton climb the wall. Photos by Bill Rea

Children got the chance to have creative designs painted on their faces, and Gia Polsinelli, 2, of Bolton was among those taking advantage of the opportunity at CCRW. The artist was Lia Strazzeri.

There were crafts to work on at CCRW, and Jayden Cowan-Rowe, 6, of Bolton was working on his.

The activities at Mayfield Recreation Complex included drumming cardio of kids. Terra Medeiros of Caledon East and her daughter Elaina, 1, were having fun giving it a try.