

Town lowers flags in honour of Patrick Pidgeon

The Town of Caledon will fly the flags at all Town facilities at half-staff in honour of firefighter Patrick Pidgeon, of the Loyalist Township Emergency Services, who lost his life battling an apartment fire in Amherstview (Kingston).

The 45-year-old husband, father and Canadian Forces veteran served two tours of duty in Afghanistan in 2006 and 2010, before returning to firefighting.

The Town extends sincere condolences to his family, friends and colleagues for this tragic loss.

The flags will remain lowered until sunset on the day of the funeral, July 23.
