Trailing teams show some muscle in seniors? hockey

Last Monday was a time for upsets in the Caledon Senior Hockey League.

Last-place Fines Ford Lincoln kicked off the Cinderella night with an 8-6 win over Rutherford Global Logistics, who were seven points ahead of them in the standings. Then Jiffy Lube Oilers walloped the first-place Yale Industrial Trucks 7-2, handing them their second loss in a row. That was followed by the Grit Bag Men downing second-place Heart Lake Insurance 6-4 in the finale at Don Sheardown Memorial Arena.
