

Vacation Bible School at Caven

There was lots of fun going on recently at Caven Presbyterian Church in Bolton as it was the scene of annual Vacation Bible School activities. The theme of this year's event was Cave Quest. Rev. Jeremy Lowther was using a number of devices to outline some of the stories in the Bible, including this demonstration on how tricky it is to walk on water. Photos by Bill Rea

There were fun activities too, as Kiley Osadca, 8, and Gianna Williams, 7, were making cave slime, as part of the Cave Quest theme.
