

WEARING THE GREEN TO FIGHT CANCER

St. Patrick's Day is always a good occasion for a party, especially if it's for a good cause. Mobile Mammaries hosted a St. Patrick's Party March 15 at Alton Legion to raise money for their participation in the Weekend to End Women's Cancer in September. On hand for the festivities were Stacey Ventura, Julie-Ann Pereina, Captain Karen Adams and Tracey Jordan. Valeria Gordon and Melissa Wood were absent for the photo. Photo by Bill Rea
