

Wednesday night hockey has started

The Bolton Wednesday Night Men's Hockey League kicked off regular season action Sept. 9 at Caledon East.

This six-team, 84-player league is both fun and competitive and houses many local past minor hockey stars.

The League wishes to acknowledge and thank Inside Out Family Chiropractic, St. Louis Bar and Grill, Oriana Financial, Niepage Construction, 365 Integrated and new sponsor Four Corner Bakery Eatery for their support this season.

After four weeks of play, St. Louis Bar and Grill, 365 Integrated and Oriana Financial find themselves tied for top spot with records of three wins and one loss.

Inside Out Family Chiropractic, Four Corners Bakery Eatery and Oriana Financial are jockeying for fourth, fifth and sixth place respectfully.

The league will play out its remaining games back in Bolton at the Don Sheardown Memorial Arena starting this week.
