

Winners got four each in all May 24 games

The scramble continues at the top of the standings in the Inglewood Ball hockey league.

George's Arena Sports holds the edge after May 24 action with 11 points, but 360 Tire Service and Mr. Handyman are right on their heels with 10.

The evening was interesting as all three winning clubs potted four goals on the way to their triumphs.

Carney Plumbing 4,

Mr. Handyman 1

Carney Plumbing came out tough and flushed the opposing Mr. Handyman crew getting the victory.

Lamp lighters for Carney were Bryan Sinclair from Jesse Rooyakkers, Terry Leonard from Gabriel Donovan and Shawn Lane, Ryan Zimmerman from Rooyakkers, and Donovan from Rooyakkers and Brian Dunn. Mr. Handyman's marker came from Chris Capobianco with Adrian DiCarlatonio and JT Gore getting the helpers.

George's Arena Sports 4

We Are Creative 1

George's guys came out flying and took it to the Creative crew to get the win and the lead in the standings.

George's goal getters were Zac Lyons from Jody Spagnol and Jake Stronach, Stronach from Phil Iozzo and Gus Kourousis, Lyons from Stronach and Jordan Bokla, and Lyons from Spagnol. We Are Creative's creator was Joshua D'Eri from Anthony Mellace and Gavin D'Eri.

360 Tire Service 4

Caledon Hills Cycling 0

The Tire guys laid the rubber down in the second frame and netted all four of their goals to earn Dylan Berry the shutout.

Bin bulgers for 360 were Kelvin Young from Jacob Mota-Wyatt, Mota-Wyatt from Rocco Manicone, Nicholas Adams from Mike Vutcher, and Adams from Young and Vutcher.